Anahata is a 100% organic and sustainable lifestyle brand. With a focus on wellness based beauty and food products, we make handcrafted, chemical-free products. Our manufacturing process supports small farmers, women entrepreneurs and local businesses. The Vedas and the Puranas mention Anahata or the Heart Chakra, which is present in all of us and epitomises balance, serenity and compassion- a mantra we make a conscious effort to inculcate in our brand as a whole.

Our product formulations are curated in the Himalayas, where our founder, Radhika Iyer Talati has spent several days, weeks & months every year since 2009 to this day, learning, experimenting and recording these recipes in the lap of the beautiful snow capped mountains of the Dhauladhar & Chamba range. Many of our formulae are the treasure trove she brings back with her year after year.
