Standing idiosyncratically apart in the heart of shopping districts as a stand alone art tower, Satgurus takes you from the mundane environment of shoes and apparel to an extra-ordinary ambience of art and culture where every customer entering truly understands the meaning of "customer is king". There is nothing modest about this place. It stands tall boasting its premiership in decorating houses with its subtle yet elegant touch. The word "boast" is used with good reason. Satgurus has been decorating homes since partition. Satgurus is "proud" about providing a range of products in the form of paintings, artefacts, murals, statues, pots, wall art, religious items, tribal art, the works. If its true, its not called bragging!
