Travel today is no longer about transporting people to someplace else, Breakaway fills in these blanks with transcending experiences that you can leisurely unpack over a lifetime.

Aware that time is the new money, we offer immersive breakaways, assured on every count. Each quality experience is rigorously researched and audited first-hand, so you can set out minus apprehensions.

Your breakaway comes with an added assurance. A travel companion who helps you look rather than see, listen rather than hear, and quietly sculpts your trip with an unimaginable dimension.

We are not tour operators. We're a committed resource who offer you a deeper, more authentic and more profound experience of a place and people, rather than a "drive by" holiday.
