Compos Mentis was started with the goal of helping people from all strata of society. The motto is to empower patients to resolve the problems in their lives.

Compos Mentis was started in 2010 by Dr Ashish Soy. He has done from MKCG Medical College , Brahmapur, Odisha. Thereafter he pursued from Central Institute of Psychiatry, Ranchi. During senior residency from RINPAS (Ranchi Institute of Neuro Psychiatry and Allied Sciences), he gained vast and tremendous experience in treating different forms of disorders.

Treatment is aimed at biological, Psychological and nutritional parameters so that a personalised approach can be done. Care is taken to help them with their struggle so that they can recover as soon as possible.

Ashish Soy has a command over child psychiatry, Adult psychiatry, geriatric psychiatry sexual disorder and de addiction. Compos mentis is a centrally located mental health care centre with psychiatric facilities under one roof, which includes psychiatric consultation, nutrition consultation and various therapies.
