We began our journey in 2005 with a zest to provide the plastic industries with best-in-class products, under the supervision of ER Gupta, the chairman of this company known for his in-depth understanding of the compounding industry with 35 years of industry experience (in 2005). In the ever-changing market condition of the plastic world, our key focus is on giving value for money to our clients through continuous improvement and product development.

We go through rigorous research on upcoming market trends and product demand and keep evaluating the customer need and the technical bench mark they are looking for in their raw materials. We not only ensure that the customer needs are fulfill but also ensure a proper supply chain management for ensuring continuous supplies.
