The project is named "Orchard Amritaya" as it seamlessly blends the core values of the Oswal Group's Orchard projects with a deep connection to the divine. The term "Orchard" signifies a community ethos infused with benevolence and a harmonious touch of nature, fostering wholesome living within a nurturing community. The addition of "Amritaya" draws inspiration from the word "Amrit," symbolizing the divine, and reflects a profound spiritual essence. The project unfolds in an environment that not only promotes well-being but also embraces breathtaking views, complemented by the sacred Ganga, adding a unique dimension of holiness and creating a truly divine and sanctified ambience. Thus, the name "Orchard Amritaya" encapsulates the project's commitment to combining community living with a spiritual and natural embrace.
