PURESIL INDIA is a certified company recognized for its strong foundation in the field of industrial minerals. Headquartered in Kutch, Gujarat, we operate our own mines and manufacturing units to produce premium-grade Kaolin Clay, Silica Sand, Quartz Powder, Feldspar, Calcined Clay, and Refractory Clay. Our in-house physical and chemical testing laboratory ensures that every product meets international quality standards.

We maintain a steady supply chain throughout the year with dedicated warehousing facilities, even during the monsoon season. Our minerals cater to various industries including glass manufacturing, ceramics, foundry, paint, rubber, construction chemicals, landscaping, and golf course maintenance.

With a global presence across regions such as the Middle East, Southeast Asia, and East Asia, PURESIL INDIA continues to deliver reliable, high-quality mineral solutions backed by technical expertise and customer-focused operations.
