

Sri Aurobindo Centre For Arts and Communication (SACAC)

Address	Sri Aurobindo Society Campus, Shaheed Jeet Singh Marg, Adhchini, New Delhi
Contact Person	Srishti Dang
Mobile Number	8800444836
Email	admissions@sac.ac.in

Established with the objective to shape the generation of media professionals, Sri Aurobindo Centre for Arts & Communication is today one of the leading mass communication institute in Delhi.

Sri Aurobindo Centre for Arts & Communication helps students achieve their goals by paving the way in diversified fields like advertising, public relations, film making, sound design and photography, among others. Every person at the institute is committed to helping students understand their potential and bring out the creative soul in them.

At SACAC we don't just provide theoretical knowledge; rather our attention is more on practical exposure and overall development of the students. The students here get:

- Stimulating curriculum
- State-of-the-art infrastructure
- One-on-one engagement
- Lush green campus
- Industry experts as faculty

The students going out of the institute are equipped with the tools, technologies and expertise to transform the media arts and communication world with their extraordinary work.

Courses offered at SACAC

Looking at the huge demand of different media art and communication courses, we offer students one-year Post Graduate / Diploma courses in Photography, Audio Engineering, Creative Writing, Music Production, Creative Documentary and Public Relations.

If you are a working professional and looking for short term courses just to hone your skills, we also offer

Short Term courses lasting from 2 to 3 months.

Contact the support staff at SACAC to get more details about admission procedure and give your dreams new wings.

For More Information visit here - <https://www.sac.ac.in>

For more details, please visit <https://www.ibizexpert.com/detail/sri-aurobindo-centre-for-arts-and-communication-sacac-delhi-353430>
