Tutoratti's live online tutoring is the most modern way of teaching as it incorporates the benefits of face-to-face teaching and online studying. It is based on the real-time interaction between the student and the teacher via video chat. The lessons take place in a virtual classroom with a variety of interactive features and learning materials. From notes to tests, we make available exclusive materials and course contents for all students, and assess their performance on a regular basis, so as to give them valuable feedback and show them the way further!

With our live tutoring students can reach their tutors more often for consultations, assignment submission, questions, and additional lessons; and a bonus benefit is for the parents, who can be more involved in the learning process by observing the lessons and re-watching the tutoring sessions, all at the comfort of home.

Our aim is to be different, and in doing so to offer more choices and a much better quality to parents and children.
