If you are visiting Dubai, you may be wondering what Dubai Desert Safari is. Well, it's a jeep safari through the desert with dancing, dune bashing and sand skiing among other activities. The desert is a unique cultural experience and the safari is both fun and ethical. Read on to discover more about this amazing adventure. You will leave with a better understanding of the desert and how to make the most of your trip.

It's a jeep safari through the dunes of the desert

If you are planning a trip to Dubai, one of the most popular activities is a jeep safari through the desert. This unique tour is perfect for first-time desert travelers. You can take a jeep safari through the dunes in a convoy of modified Jeep Wranglers, which follow an experienced 4x4 guide. The trip lasts about two hours, but you'll get plenty of time for photo opportunities!

The most popular activity of a jeep safari through the dusk is the morning one. This 30-minute experience allows you to see the sunrise over the desert. Afternoon safaris are popular as well, with demonstrations of traditional Arabic culture and falconry. In the evening, you can take part in other activities such as hot air ballooning and saluki dog racing. You may even catch a falcon demonstration if you wish.

It includes dancing, dune bashing and sand skiing

The Dubai Desert Safari is an adventurous activity for those who love the thrill of speed. You'll be on the move for about 45 minutes in a Land Cruiser, zooming up and down the tall sand dunes. Amid the excitement and the sand, you'll get to stop at the top of the tallest dune to take sunset photos.

There's no shortage of fun things to do on the Dubai Desert Safari. A half-day trip includes a camel ride, belly dance performance, and a dune buggy ride. You'll also enjoy the nightlife at the desert camp, so bring a sleeping bag and blanket for the night. Your desert safari ends with a 4x4 transfer back to your hotel.

A night out in the desert will feature a bedouin camp, where you can eat traditional Bedouin food and enjoy the desert sunset. Other activities on your Dubai desert safari may include henna painting, dancing, and sand skiing. At the end of the night, you might also want to try sandboarding and a camel trek. And if you're adventurous, you can even take a class in Middle Eastern dress, complete with henna and shisha.

It's a cultural experience

One of the most popular activities on a Dubai Desert Safari is henna tattooing. Henna is a plant-based dye used for centuries to create beautiful temporary tattoos. Henna is applied to the skin with a cone-shaped applicator and the designs can take anywhere from minutes to hours. The result is an unforgettable cultural experience. In addition to tattooing, the desert safari offers cultural activities including falconry and belly dancing.

The Bedouins are nomadic Arabs who live in the desert. They maintain an intense connection with nature and have adapted to the desert lifestyle. Most desert safaris include a glimpse into the way of life of these arid people. The experience is complete with activities like camel riding and authentic belly dance performances. While on a desert safari, expect to meet a variety of colorful characters. Guests will have the chance to meet them and learn about their customs and culture.

It's an ethical safari

When looking for an ethical safari, you might want to go on a tour of the UAE desert. You can find plenty of ethical safari options in Dubai, including those that are environmentally conscious. A desert safari with a conscious approach will help you connect with nature while giving you an insight into a unique culture. You'll also get to see some spectacular wildlife, such as falcons and camels. Whether you choose to take a safari in Dubai or another location, make sure to choose a company that follows ethical guidelines.

While you're on your desert safari, make sure to wear comfortable layers of clothing that you can remove and add as the weather changes. The temperature can get very cold in the desert, so you'll want to dress appropriately. Women should wear clothing that covers their shoulders, but not their entire body. A pair of breathable trousers and a t-shirt with a lightweight jacket will work well. Bring a shawl if you don't get one provided by the tour provider.
